

NS Research University of Central California

January 19th 2023

Are you a motivated student with a passion for learning, research, and community service? Are you dreaming of pursuing higher education in the United States of America? The NS University of Central California offers an incredible opportunity for students to experience world-class education with full-ride scholarships.

This esteemed institution is not only dedicated to academic excellence but also places a strong emphasis on community engagement and cutting-edge research, particularly in the field of computing & technology.

Application Requirements

A TOEFL, Duolingo, or an EF Learning Certificate for international students from non-English speaking countries

A minimum GPA of 2.5

Being aged 14 or above

We are test (SAT/ACT) optional

Application Supplements

One personal essay with 500-650 words

Applicants are encouraged to express their individuality and share their personal experiences, academic aspirations, and contributions to the community

One Teacher Recommendation Letter

A letter from a teacher who can attest to the student's academic achievements, character, and potential for success as well as portray the student's rigor in class activities

Why the NS Research University of Central California?

A soft spot for Community Engagement & A haven for learning

USC takes pride in its commitment to fostering a sense of community among its students. The university believes in the transformative power of collaboration and encourages students to actively participate in community service initiatives. This not only enriches the student experience but also contributes to the development of well-rounded, socially conscious individuals. For those with a passion for technology, USC provides an unparalleled environment for cutting-edge research. USC's commitment to innovation is evident in its research labs and state-of-the-art facilities.

Click for more information and application